The Utah State Tax Commission filed 11 felony counts against a North Ogden man on state income tax evasion charges Jan. 14 in 2nd District Court of Weber County.

Michael A. Miller was charged with five counts of tax evasion and one count of pattern of unlawful activity, both second degree felonies. He was also charged with five counts of failure to file a proper tax return, a third degree felony.

The Tax Commission investigation shows Miller received substantial income between 2003 and 2007, but refused to file and pay his income taxes. He is an employee of Miller Heating and Air in Ogden.

Miller is under probation for third degree felony theft he was convicted of in March 2009 in 2nd District Court of Weber County.

Utah State Tax Commission criminal investigators conducted the investigation which will be prosecuted by the Utah Attorney General's office.
